

Associate HR Consultant Victoria

Chemistry Consulting Group is expanding! Come add your talent to our remarkable team of HR Professionals and Executive Search Experts. We are seeking a motivated and experienced HR professional to assist our clients and their diverse HR needs. Chemistry Consulting Group is a BC based full-service HR and Executive Search firm, delivering exceptional services throughout BC from offices in Victoria, Nanaimo and Greater Vancouver.

Combining your knowledge of HR strategies and BC Employment Standards will allow you to deliver the very best to meet the critical needs of our clients. Your strong, independent work ethic, knowledge of HR best practices and the ability to develop and nurture strong working relationships will enable you to play an integral role within our team. As an Associate HR Consultant, you will work directly with our clients providing expert and timely service in a professional manner while also understanding the significance of a positive client experience.

Your overall HR Consulting experience will allow you to work collaboratively with our clients, advising them on best practices related to HR processes within their distinctive organizations. Keeping in line with Chemistry Consulting Group's overall business plan, your networking talents will complement the growth of our HR Consulting division.

Key attributes we are seeking:

- > CPHR designation
- > Solid HR experience and/or depth of knowledge
- > Strong self-motivation, a proactive approach to challenges
- > Ability to work both independently and as an integral part of our team
- > High level attention to detail and superior writing abilities
- > Confidence in fostering HR client relationships

We offer a collaborative working environment where you will be trusted and valued as a professional. We work as a team understanding that our success and that of our clients comes through our people.

Whether you are a seasoned professional seeking contractual projects to compliment your existing workload or simply interested in new ventures, let us know who you are by submitting your resume and cover letter outlining your areas of HR expertise and interest.
